Inner Significance of Suprabhatam

In the dawn when we recite the Suprabhatam, we must realize that the Lord is there within us. It is He who is to perform all actions through our Indriyas (Senses). Our actions should be such , that they can be termed Divine. Each time we perform an act or generate a thought, we should try to synchronize with Sai's action and thought.

As each new day begins in the morning, we should chant this Suprabhatam and remind ourselves of the existence of the Lord within us.

Easwarambaa Sutha refers to all of us. We are all children of Divinity. Our body is Puttaparthi. The devotees eagerly waiting are the Indriyas (senses). The fruits and the flowers and the offerings are our deeds. The women who are pure as Sita or Sati are the feminine aspect of the power within each of us, as Ichcha Shakti (Will Power), Kriya Shakti( energy for action), Vichar Shakti (thinking power), Vak Shakti (Power of speech), etcetera. Shakti (energy or power) signifies the feminine aspect.

In this manner if we try to awaken the Lord within us, that is try to realize His Presence, surely we will reach this Abode which is resplendent with Gnyan (knowledge). Vignyan (Science), Sugnyan (Spiritual knowledge) and we will be liberated.
