Sathya Sai Baba on Bhajans

Not all realize the potency and efficacy of reciting the Lord's name. The first requisite is purity of thought, word and deed. The name that is uttered by the tongue should be meditated upon by the mind. What is uttered and dwelt upon should be hailed by clapping the hands. This three-fold concentration on the Divine Name - unity of mind, speech and action - purifies the heart and nourishes the feeling of devotion. Singing the Lord's name should become an exercise in mutual sharing of joy and holiness. (Sathya Sai Speaks, Vol V)

Have the bhajans on as many days as possible or at least once a week. Have them in a central place where all can come. (The Holy Man and the Psychiatrist, 132)

Any devotional song, in any language can be sung as long as all can follow. (Sai Bhajana Mala, 29)

Sing familiar bhajans, so that all can share in anand (bliss). (Sai Bhajana Mala, 29)

When you sing bhajans, dwell on the meaning of the song and the message of each name and form of God. (Sai Bhajana Mala, 30)

You cannot insist that in the bhajans only songs on Sathya Sai should be sung! Fanaticism of that kind I very much dislike and condemn ... You betray your ignorance of the truth when you stick to any one of my names and avoid the rest. (SSS, VIII, 75)

Bhajan has to be a thrilling experience, which must leave the participants full of pure energy and elevated enthusiasm. (Sai Bhajana Mala, 29)

Some persons attending bhajans do not move their lips at all. They may say that they are singing the songs mentally within themselves. This is not proper ... You must sing the names aloud, full-throated, as far as the voice can reach. Only then the Divine will respond in full measure and shower His grace. No one will go to the rescue of a drowning man if his cries are feeble. (SS, 35, April 1992, 70)

Together with melody and rhythm, you have to impart feeling to your singing to make the bhajan a sacred offering to the Divine. A tune without feeling is an infliction. Giving up conceit and exhibitionism, you must sing the bhajans in a spirit of humility and devotion. That is the right way to perform bhajans. (Sai Bhajana Mala, 30)

Bhajan must be a felt experience. Do not sing with one eye on the effect the song makes on the listeners and the other on the effect it makes on God. (SSS, VIII, 60)

Bhajans have to be sung and offered to God in an attitude of utter humility; they are not to be taken as exercises in an exhibition of talents or as competitions for mastery of musical skill. They have to please the Lord, not your fans. (SSS, IX, 177)

Pay attention to the tune, the meaning, the variety, the voice, the raga (rhythm), the tala (beat), and other fine points of the bhajans. (Sai Bhajana Mala, 30)

Unless you sing Bhajans for your own joy, you cannot bring joy to others. It is only when the feeling arises in the heart that the song will appeal to the hearts of the others. I am pleased only when love is the keynote, when the feeling of unity prevails, when the melody comes from cleansed, God-loving hearts (Sai Bhajana Mala, 17)

JYOTI (LIGHT) MEDITATION

Sathya Sai Baba recommends light meditation as the easiest form of meditation to focus the mind on God. The following are the steps for a short meditation before devotional singing:

1. Chanting of AUM

2. Guidance:

Look at the flame steadily for some time, and closing your eyes try to feel the flame inside you between your eyebrows. (pause)

Take this purifying Light inside you and let it permeate every limb in your body and make it an instrument of Love and Light. (pause)

“ We meditate on the Glory of Divine Light, whose Effulgence illuminates the entire creation, embodied in the three states - Earth, Ether and Heaven. That Supreme Light, may it remove our ignorance and enlighten our intellect. May it purify our thought, word and deed. May it spread Light and Love to all of Creation.”

(5-min. silence)

If you are adoring God in any form now, try to visualize that form in the all-pervasive light. For Light is God; God is Light. (pause)

3. Close with the peace prayer: Om Shanti Shanti Shantihi (Peace to all beings)

Glossary

Based on Sathya Sai Baba's explanation of worship names and descriptions in the songs

Sai Ram - Name addressed to Sai Baba and often used by devotees to greet each other. Baba explains that " Rama " means he who delights and that 'Sai Ram' means Sai is one who delights the hearts of devotees. Sai Ram is used in the context of Baba's teaching that we should see Him in all hearts.

Sai Baba - The name Sai Baba as explained by Baba stands for Divine Mother and Father (Sa - Divine; Ayee- Mother and Baba - Father)

Bhagavan - Baba says the term refers to the glory of God expressed as Wisdom, Strength, Potency, Lordship, Valor and Splendor. 'Bha' refers to the Divine and 'Ga' refers to Effulgence. One who possesses divine splendor is Bhagavan.

Avatar - Avatar means the descent of the Supreme Principle of God into a human form in order to re-establish righteousness again and again. Baba says that the various avatars symbolize the gradual evolution of consciousness from the fish to the animal and then upwards to self-conscious man. To his devotees, Sai Baba represents the manifestation of God Himself, come to re-establish righteousness on earth.

Shirdi Sai, Sathya Sai, Prema Sai - The holy trinity of divine incarnations spanning three centuries. Shirdi Sai Baba (1835-1918) lived in the western Indian town of Shirdi; Sathya Sai Baba (1926-) lives at Prashanti Nilayam Ashram in south India and Prema Sai, the yet unmanifested incarnation of Sai. Baba says: " The bodies are different. The first advent was for revealing Divinity. The second advent is to awaken the Divinity in human beings. The next advent is for propagating Divinity. These vestures are assumed only for the sake of devotees. Unless the Divine comes in a form, no one can develop faith in the Formless. The Divine in human form is preparation for comprehending the formless Absolute God. "

" Baba compares various deities (addressed in the songbook) as different functional departments of One God. Deities are different aspects of God who is only one, pertaining to the different functions. As the human body and the universe are similar, there is only one aspect of God for one particular function of all bodies "

Ganesha - In the Hindu tradition, all activities begin with the worship and invocation of Ganesha. Ganesha is the deity that removes all obstacles and promotes auspiciousness. Ganesha is addressed in the songs as Lambodara, Ganaraya, Ganapati, Gajaanana, etc. Baba says that the concept of "Ganesha" has a deep inner meaning. Ganesha is portrayed with an elephant head, indicating that the grace of the Lord can cut through any difficulty, just as an elephant can cut through the thickest jungle. The syllables Ga and Na that make up the name Ganesha stand for: 'Ga' for Buddhi or Intellect and "Na' for Vijnana or Wisdom. So Ganesha is the Lord of Wisdom and Intellect. Ganesha is also the master of all Gunas or Virtues. Ganesha is sometimes worshipped as riding on a mouse. Baba says that the mouse represents the darkness of ignorance. Ganesha signifies the effulgence of Wisdom that dispels the darkness of ignorance.

Baba says that deities worshipped in all religious traditions lay down regulations for observance by the world in respect of their specific functions. These regulations are like the traffic signs and guideposts that indicate to people using the roads how they should behave. For instance:

Brahma/Vishnu/Maheshvara - The Hindu trinity - Baba explains the inner significance of this important concept: " Brahma, Vishnu and Mahesvara are not entities with forms. The trinity represents the deified expressions of three qualities (gunas). Creation, Sustenance and Dissolution are the three attributes based on the three qualities - Satva, Rajas, Tamas (Purity, Passion and Inertia). These very attributes refer to the Trident, the Trinity and the three worlds..... We should harmonize these three qualities and offer it to Shiva.

What do you mean by Shiva? It is a state of auspiciousness. Once you unify the trinity, auspiciousness manifests in man. He is same as Allah, God, Jehovah, etc..”

Shiva - Baba says the term ‘Shiva’ means goodness or auspiciousness, unlike the general description of him as an angry, destructive deity. Baba says that Shiva is the God of Love who drinks the poison of man’s desires and passions when the devotee surrenders to Him with love. The crescent moon frequently referred to Shiva when worshipping Him means that Shiva cools down the heat of all these desires that He has accepted from us. The river Ganges portrayed as flowing down His matted hair refers to the nourishing and sustaining Love that pours down from Shiva to all who worship Him. The animal skin that Shiva wears around Himself is indicative of Shiva’s control over our lower passions and desires

Rama - In the songbook, Rama is often addressed as Ramachandra, Raghu, Sita Rama, Raghava - all referring to the divine incarnation of the Lord that took birth in the Raghu dynasty in Northern India ages ago. Baba says that the inner meaning of Rama is that ‘He who delights’. Nothing delights more than one’s innate Self, so Rama is also called Atma Rama. Rama is the name for bliss inherent in every heart; recite the name, let the bliss respond and upsurge. Rama is also worshipped as the Ideal Human Being - the embodiment of total righteousness. Baba says that when we sing about Rama, we sing about this principle - the principle of righteousness and bliss that incarnated as Lord Rama.

Krishna - Krishna is worshipped in the songbook through various names - Krishna, Gopala, Govinda, Madhusudana, Hari, Keshava, Madhava, Mohana, Nandalala. Baba says that the real meaning of Krishna is ‘he who attracts.’ The Krishna principle refers to the power of God to attract the heart of man through pure and unblemished Love. These other names describe the different aspects of Krishna, both from a historical perspective as well as spiritual. Baba has clarified that the name Gopala does not mean a cowherd, but rather the one that protects and fosters all creatures (the Sanskrit word ‘Go’ meaning cow or creature). Mohan refers to the principle of Love that is untouched by desire, that enchants all with its purity and bliss.

“ Rama, Krishna, and Sai Baba appear different because of the dress each has donned, but it is the self-same entity, believe Me. Do not be misled into error and loss “ (Baba, SS Speaks, Vol 2, pp 101)

Jesus - Jesus Christ is addressed as Jesus, Yesu, Ishu, Isa in the songbook. Baba says that the name ‘Jesus’ is derived from the word Isa. Isa is Sai when the sound is reversed. Both words mean God, Ishvara, the Repository of Glory, Majesty, Love and Sath-Chit-Ananda (Existence, Intelligence and Bliss) itself.

Allah - The principle of Allah refers to the all-powerful, all wise and all merciful God. It also refers to the principle of divine Love that is beyond all forms and attributes. The same principle is also worshipped as Raheem, Kareem, Maula, etc.

Buddha - Baba says that Buddha was christened as ‘Siddhartha’ (one who achieves success) and he later came to be known as Buddha because he developed Buddhi (Intellect) and Discrimination. Purity in thought, word and deed is the essence of Buddha’s teachings. Baba says that Buddha preached five principles - Right Vision; Right Feeling; Right Listening; Right Speech and Right Action

Guru Nanak - Founder of the Sikh religious path. Nanak advocates a spiritual path based on the synthesis of Hinduism and Islam, emphasizing devotion and love of God. Baba says that Guru Nanak was the first one to initiate community singing programs (bhajans or keerthans)

Zoroaster - Founder of Zoroastrianism who believed that man should ever have the Fire of Wisdom blazing in his consciousness so that evil thoughts and tendencies might be reduced to ashes. It has to infuse all thoughts, words and deeds with the illumination of virtue and vigor.

AUM - Also known as OM. Baba refers to Aum as the symbol of the unchanging, eternal, universal supreme God. When the elements originated and Creation started, the sound Om was produced. That sound is the primeval one. Om/Aum is a composite of three sounds - A (aa); U (oo) and M (mm)Om is the origin of creation and it provides the basis, the core of all religious teachings.

Atma - The eternal, all pervading Universal Spirit that is the essence of everything. Various addressed as God, Absolute, Soul, Sat-Chit-Ananda, Divinity. The Atma in the individual is the same Atma in all - ageless, attributeless, timeless and beyond description.

Guru - In the songbook, Sai Baba is addressed as the Sadguru or the Divine Teacher. Baba explains the word 'Guru' this way: The letter "Gur" signifies one who transcends all attributes and the letter "Ru" signifies one who has no form. Only God can be regarded as one who is beyond attributes. So God is the real Guru. In another sense, the term 'Guru' means one who dispels ignorance.

Lingam - Baba says that just as AUM is the 'sound symbol' of God, the Lingam is the 'form symbol' of God - the most meaningful, the least endowed with appendages of attributes. Lingam means, that in which this world of change attains emergence or dissolution. All forms merge in the Formless at last... So the Lingam is the simplest sign of emergence and merger. In the songbook, Baba is worshipped as the concretized symbol of this principle - Lingesvara, Atma-lingam, etc.

Lotus Feet/Padnamaskar - Baba explains the significance of worshipping the Lord's Feet by saying that there is the devotee's yearning to touch the Lord and the easiest way is to touch the feet of the Lord. God is positive and man is negative. If contact is made, the divine current flows from positive to negative. The touch of the Lord frees one from the consequences of one's actions. When one comes in contact with Baba's feet, the sacred impulses from Him flow to the devotee. This implies that we should keep contact with only pure objects and keep away from impure ones. This contact with divine energy reduces all bad thoughts and bad actions to ashes. This is the sanctity attached to the performance of 'padnamaskar' or prostrating to the Lord's Feet

Gayatri Mantra - The Gayatri Mantra (chant) is the most powerful chant according to Baba, bestowing peace, prosperity and protection on all who understand it and chant it with sincerity. Briefly, the Gayatri is an adoration, a meditation, a description and a prayer - all rolled into one single chant. Baba says that the mantra (chant) is a prayer to God to confer upon us all powers and talents by awakening the latent Divinity in us and to 'divinise' our thoughts, words and deeds.

Aarati Song - Prayer addressed at the end of a program to bring it to a close by offering our salutations to the Lord. We offer all our impure thoughts and impulses to the Lord and come out with pure thoughts.

Maa / Mata - Refers to the Divine Mother addressed as Durga, Kali, Ma, Sai Maa, Janani, Devi, Bhavani, Lakshmi, Sarasvati, etc. God is worshipped as the embodiment of the Universal Mother who sustains, nourishes and protects the world. Various attributes of God are thus subscribed to the Divine Mother. Baba says that Durga, Lakshmi and Sarasvati (commonly used names for the Divine Mother) represent three kinds of potencies in man - Durga is present in man in the form of dynamism (power of action); Lakshmi is manifest as Will power and Sarasvati is manifest as the power of speech and discrimination. Further Baba explains that "Humans are prone to exhibit rajasic qualities like anger and hatred. These are the menacing manifestations of Durga. The extolling of the Divine in song and poetry and the pleasing vibrations produced by them indicate the power of Sarasvati. The pure qualities that arise in man like compassion, forbearance and sympathy are derived from Lakshmi. When people worship Durga, Lakshmi, Sarasvati and other forms externally in pictures and icons, they are giving physical forms to subtle potencies that are within them. "

Prashanti Nilayam - "The Abode of Supreme Peace" is Baba's main residence or Ashram in India where devotees gather to have his 'Darshan.' It is located in the village of Puttaparti (referred as Parti or Puttaparti in the songbook) in south India. Baba is addressed as Partipurishvara - the Lord of Puttaparti

Darshan - The vision of a divine being - referring to both outer and inner vision of the Divine. The sight of a holy being results in the blessings of divine energy and Baba's darshan is treasured as His blessing that vitalizes and transforms us. Baba warns us to never underestimate the power of Darshan because it is a Gift from Him to us and transmits strong spiritual energy to us.

Jyoti - The light of Wisdom as explained by Sai Baba. He says: “ Only by the Light of the Divine lamp inside that you can blossom as a worthwhile person. Inner purity is the greatest wealth that one can acquire. The inner purity is the wick in the container of the heart. Devotion is the oil and Divine Grace is the fire with which the lamp of wisdom can be lit. “

Sat-Chit-Ananda or Satchidananda - Baba calls this the ‘reality’ behind the ‘unreal.’ In the songbook, the Lord is addressed as the embodiment of Sat-Chit-Ananda. Baba explains it as: “ Everything in the universe is Sat (existence), Chit - (Intelligence) and Ananda (Bliss). These three are attributes of Divinity, which is our dormant, but dominant force.”

Gopikas/Gopis - According to Baba, the Gopis, who were devotee-contemporaries of Lord Krishna, were really the sages and saints who had come back again to seek the company of the Lord. ‘Gopi’ means a person who has subdued the senses and the Gopis were the highest class of devotees who had no consciousness of anything other than the Lord and were firmly attached to the principle of Krishna resident in their body.

Gopala - Krishna is frequently addressed as Gopala - the master of the senses and also the Lord who fosters all of creation

Radha - Radha was Lord Krishna’s foremost devotee, a perfect embodiment of total and pure devotion. Baba explains that Radha represents nature, which is another form of the Lord Himself. Her devotion to Krishna was as pure and steadfast as an ever-flowing stream.

Seva - Community service programs conducted in a spirit of selflessness, love and unity. Baba says that service is the quickest way to eliminate the ego and win the Grace of God

Namo / Namaskar - a salutation to the Lord and to the divinity present in each heart

Vibhuti - According to Baba: “ Vibhuti is symbolic of the cosmic, immortal and infinite nature of all forms of God, Atma or the spirit - that is, what is left when everything worldly, transient and changeable has been burnt away....Vibhuti or Ash represents the burning of desires that agitate the mind and cause confusion. “

Prema - Love is one without a second. When this love is directed towards the world, it is called attachment, and when directed towards God, it is called Prema (devotional love).

Sathya - Love as Thought is Truth

Dharma - Love as action is Right Conduct

Shanti - Love as Understanding is Peace.

Ahimsa - Love as Feeling is Non-Violence

Baba on Himself:

Sathya is what I teach
Dharma is the way I live
Shanti is the mark of My personality
Prema is my very Nature
